Subject: WORLD RESEARCH AND INNOVATION FESTIVAL (WRIF 2024)

Date : August 6, 2024

This is to endorse the 2nd World Research and Innovation Festival (WRIF 2024), organized by West Visayas State University (WVSU). This series of online international conferences, themed "DRIVE: Discoveries, Research, and Innovations: Venturing Beyond Borders and Exploring Frontiers", will take place on October 2024 via Zoom.

WRIF 2024 highlights the synergy between academia, policy, and industry in addressing its central theme. This global research festival will bring together scholars from diverse disciplines worldwide, aligning with the university's various degree programs. As a significant international event, WRIF 2024 offers a unique platform to enhance the knowledge base of Philippine universities across multiple fields of study. The festival features four international virtual conferences: The International Conference for Medical, Dental, Health and Allied Sciences; The International Conference for Pure and Applied Sciences; The International Conference for Education and Social Sciences; and The International Conference for Business, Tourism and Hospitality Management.

The organizers will be accepting abstract submissions until August 30, 2024. Interested presenters can submit their abstracts via the links provided on the event poster. For more details about WRIF 2024, they can also visit the official Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/wvsu.wrif>.

Enclosed is the event poster, for your ready reference. Your office may contact the organizers via email at wrif2022@wvsu.edu.ph or telephone number (033) 320-0870 to 77 local 1145, for further inquiries.
