To add excitement to the occasion, the university encourages everyone to wear the color that represents their love life status on February 14, 2025. Show your vibe on February 14 by wearing the color that speaks your heart. Participation is highly encouraged among students, faculty, and staff to wear appropriate attire based on the following colors:

Red	–	Taken and in love
Pink	–	Crushing on someone
Yellow	–	It's complicated
Green	–	Single and ready to mingle
Blue	–	Moving on

White	–	Keeping it a secret
Orange	–	Happy and content
Purple	–	Friendzoned but surviving

While self-expression is encouraged, all participants must still conform to the professional dress code, following CSC Memorandum Circular No. 14, s. 1991, requiring government employees to dress appropriately and professionally, CHED Memorandum Order No. 63, s. 2017, encouraging higher education institutions to maintain decency and professionalism in attire, and prohibiting excessively revealing, offensive, or inappropriate clothing.

Campus Security Personnel are directed to allow entry to individuals participating in the dress code colors as long as they adhere to the prescribed professional dress code.

All Campus Directors are requested to ensure compliance within their respective campuses while promoting the spirit of the celebration.
